Wendy deVries is a Morristown native who has just recently moved back home after a 10-year stop in Aspen, Colorado. She was employed by Morgan Stanley as an event coordinator in New York City for three years prior to her marriage. She has been an active community volunteer for the last 25 years. Prior to her move to Aspen, she was involved in The Peck School, The Mountain Lakes school system and the JCC of Metrowest.

While in Aspen, she served on the board of The Aspen Writers' Foundation for six years (three as its Vice President), three years on the board of the Aspen Art Museum with a focus on its education programming, as an event chair for Roaring Fork Leadership and as an event chair for the Aspen Education Foundation. She owns a small business, Prints Charming, a fine print and framing company. Wendy currently serves as co-chair of MPAC Starlight Ball committee, serves on the Morristown Festival of Books board and as a member of Impact 100. She has two grown children, Michael and Peter Aresty.

Our Mission:

The Community Theatre at Mayo Center for the Performing Arts, a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit performing arts organization, presents a wide range of programs that entertain, enrich, and educate the diverse population of the region and enhance the economic vitality of Northern New Jersey.
