

Caroline Opondo

Caroline Opondo is a Director of Clinical Development Training at Sanofi Pharmaceuticals, a Pharma company where she has worked in various roles for the past 21 years in Bridgewater, NJ. She has worked in Global Quality Assurance and Compliance, clinical quality auditing, SOP-writing, implementing clinical training. Her activities include presenting Sanofi's Quality Management Systems to the FDA for Sponsor inspections and drug approval.

Caroline currently lives in Morristown, NJ. She has two children in the Morris School District and is a recent past member of the Morris Educational Foundation. This organization enhances educational opportunities for more than 5,200 students in all 10 schools of the Morris School District. She is also a past Trustee of the Morris Housing Authority, an equal housing opportunity agency that provides housing to low to moderate-income families and seniors for the Town of Morristown.

Caroline's relationship with the MPAC dates back to when her High School Senior was at Cradles to Crayons day-care center. Cradles had their annual end of year showcase on the MPAC stage between 2004-2008. The experience opened the door to her family and friends to the local theatre's vast and diverse offerings.
