Nikki Sumpter is passionate about solving problems to unleash the power of people to succeed, communities to thrive, and organizations to grow. As Executive Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer for Atlantic Health System, Ms. Sumpter has oversight for key business services, including human resources, diversity and inclusion, marketing and communications, sustainability, and philanthropy in support of our system.

Under her leadership, Atlantic Health System has been named to Fortune's "100 Best Companies to Work For" and "Best Workplaces for Women," PEOPLE's Companies that Care®, and has received awards from Practice Greenhealth.

Her many accomplishments lie in a thoughtful approach, an uncompromising work ethic, and a collaborative style that uncovers the best strategy, designs the right systems, and executes the most efficient plans. Ms. Sumpter has been recognized as a 2020 ROI-New Jersey Influencer and Woman of Achievement by the Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey.

Prior to joining Atlantic Health System, Ms. Sumpter served as SVP of Human Resources and Learning at JPS Health Network in Fort Worth, Texas, where she led the human resources division, network education and learning, occupational health and wellness, and diversity and inclusion functions. Ms. Sumpter's professional experience in human resources spans more than twenty years.

Ms. Sumpter serves on the board of trustees for Saint Elizabeth University and Mayo Performing Arts Center. She is a board member for the New Jersey Morris-Sussex-Warren Workforce Development, Girl Scouts of Northern New Jersey, as well as Cornerstone Family Programs/Morristown Neighborhood House. She furthers her commitment to community stewardship as a member of The Links, Inc. and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Ms. Sumpter received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration and Human Resources from the University of North Carolina – Charlotte and earned a Master of Science degree in Human Resources Development from Villanova University.