Full of magic, humor, and a stunning musical score, Frozen is a powerful tale of sisterhood, acceptance, and finding the real meaning of true love.

It's time to go to the Mayo Performing Arts Center!
The show will be at this building.

I will sit in the car and buckle in, so I am safe.

Then whoever is taking will get in the car and maybe listen to music with my grown-up during the ride.

When we get to the parking lot, I will open my door, and I will get out of the car.

Hold hands or walk close with my grownup!

What Happens When We Get to MPAC?

When we arrive at the theater, we'll walk down two steps and through the front doors. My grownup and I will walk through the security scanners right outside the front door.

Inside, staff will be ready to help us and we will scan our tickets.

It's our turn! We go into the theater!

There are people called ushers to help us to the seat number on our ticket.

And if I need a break, I can go with my grownup to the relaxation area in a separate space.

When the show is ready to begin, the lights will go down. It may get very quiet and then loud again

I can clap or cheer if I like something. Other people may clap too. That's how we show we're having fun!
It's okay if I feel excited, nervous, or tired.

Seeing a show like Frozen is a big adventure!
I'm doing a great job.

When the Show Ends

When the show is over, the lights will come back on.

We'll stand up, walk out with my grown-up, and head back to the car.

I'll buckle my seatbelt, and we'll drive home.

I will get in the car and buckle my seatbelt. It's time to go home!
